

Sample Statement of Attainment

Statements of Attainment are:

Formal, Nationally Recognised and Consistent – they are the same for each state in Australia and are recognised as meeting national standards

Competency Based – the Statement of Attainment proves that you have been assessed as competent in a work function – that you can carry out that work function

Logo of the Registered Training Organisation (RTO) that is registered to issue the Statement

Unit Title and Unit Name that you have been assessed in

The Training Package the unit comes from

The name of the assessor who assessed you

The name of the assessor who assessed you

Nationally Recognised Training logo

This Statement of Attainment is recognised within the Australian Qualifications Framework

STATEMENT OF ATTAINMENT
Issued by The RTO Ltd (03) 1234 5678

YOUR NAME

Has successfully demonstrated competence in

Unit Number: FPICOT2202A
Unit Name: Rack material

Being a Competency Standard of the
Forest and Forest Products Industry Training Package (FPI99)

Registered Assessor 2 March 2005
(Assessors Name) Date of Assessment

Signed By 20 March 2005
Director, The RTO Ltd Date of Issue

There is no limit on the number of Statements of Attainment a person can hold.

Once issued, a Statement of Attainment for the named unit of competence does not expire. But if the unit of competence changes, then a person may want to be reassessed to have evidence of current competence.

Gathering together enough Statements of Attainment can also allow a person to form a full qualification.